

Nephrology Technicians/Technologists
NATIONAL RECOGNITION WEEK
10-14 October 2016

37 WAYS TO CELEBRATE

1. Send a press release to your local daily and weekly newspapers, radio stations and TV stations.
2. Call your favorite radio talk show host or DJ, and ask him or her to give a special dedication to your dialysis technicians.
3. Invite a reporter to your facility as part of NRW celebration.
4. Hang computer-generated banners in your office.
5. Purchase or make cards of appreciation. Ask patients to sign cards or banners.
6. Ask patients to write notes about their favorite technicians, and enlarge them and display throughout the office.
7. Hang photographs of your techs in the office.
8. Collect good stories about your technicians' contributions and use them in a scrapbook or at a staff meeting.
9. Have the manager or president write a special letter to each technician.
10. Have the manager or president write a letter about the technicians to patients.
11. Write an article about your technicians for your company newsletter.
12. Mention every technician in the company newsletter.
13. Publish your technicians' pictures in your company newsletter.
14. Present technicians with certificates of appreciation from the physicians.
15. Arrange a handshake from a VIP for every technician.
16. Reserve special parking spaces for all techs. (Ask president or VPs to give up their spot for the week.)
17. Take pictures of all techs in their job setting and put them together with music for a slide show to run continuously all week.
18. Bring in donuts.
19. Bring in cake and punch.
20. Bring in pizza!
21. Have a potluck lunch.
22. Have a catered lunch.

23. Have a barbecue.
24. Distribute restaurant gift certificates to your technicians.
25. Insert movie passes in paychecks.
26. Hold daily drawings for gift certificates.
27. Send fresh flowers to the office.
28. Send corsages to all technicians.
29. Present company T-shirts to all technicians.
30. Present special pens or water bottles to technicians.
31. Send your technicians to the NANT Symposium in Las Vegas, 2 - 4 March 2010
32. Send your technicians to a dialysis related educational meeting.
33. Form a NANT chapter in your area, or host a NANT meeting and provide a speaker and refreshments.
34. Pay for your technicians to take a certification examination.
35. Purchase publications for technicians to help them study for certification examinations.
36. Give each technician a clock with a thank you for his or her time given.
37. Purchase a one-year NANT membership for your certified technicians.

